

Transport

Air flights

Flights to Ekaterinburg and back are paid by the participants.

Koltsovo International Airport

Ekaterinburg Koltsovo International Airport is Russia's largest regional airport. Over 40 Russian and foreign airlines connect Ekaterinburg with more than 100 cities of the world. Koltsovo International Airport is the sixth by the annual passengers flow, ceding to Airports of Moscow (Sheremetyevo Domodedovo, Vnukovo), Saint-Petersburg (Pulkovo) and Sochi.

In a framework of XI International Mines Rescue Competition IMRC-2018

there will be organized the group transfers for participants at Koltsovo airport upon the arrival. Representatives of the Organizing committee will meet guests at the arrival areas of airport and follow up to the point of departure transfer to the hotels: Novotel, Park Inn, Onegin, Ramada. The transfer of participants, arriving to Ekaterinburg by other kinds of transport, such as train or bus, will be provided by agreement with the IMRC-2018 Organizing Committee. There will also be organized group transfers to Koltsovo airport at the end of the event. All transfers are organized only from and to the hotels: Novotel, Park Inn, Onegin, Ramada.